To change privacy and safety settings for yourself
1. Go to Xbox.com and sign in to your account (this must be an adult account).
2. Select your gamertag.
3. Select Xbox settings. If you don't see this option, select More links and then select Xbox settings.
4. Select Privacy & online safety.
5. Select either the Xbox One/Windows 10 Online Safety tab or the Privacy tab. Review the current settings and update any that you want to change.
6. Select Save before leaving or switching to another tab. If you don't save the changes before you move to the other tab, your changes won't be saved.

To change privacy and safety settings for a child
1. Go to Xbox.com and sign in to your account (this must be an adult account).
2. Select the gamertag for your child's account.
3. Select Xbox settings. If you don't see this option, select More links and then select Xbox settings.
4. Select Privacy & online safety.
5. Select either the Xbox One/Windows 10 Online Safety tab or the Privacy tab. Review the current settings and update any that you want to change.
6. Select Save before leaving or switching to another tab. If you don't save the changes before you move to the other tab, your changes won't be saved.
7. Have your child sign in and then sign out of their account to make sure the changes take effect.

PlayStation

Account holders can limit how visible they are to other users on PlayStation Network using Privacy Settings. You can customise the following features:
-Messages
-Friend requests
-Voice and video chat invitations
-Invitations to play online
-Trophies

Please select your PlayStation system from the list below:
PS4 Privacy Settings
There are a few extra ways to communicate and share your information on PlayStation 4, so make sure you check all three options in the Privacy Settings menu.

1. Go to [Settings] > [Account Management] > [Privacy Settings] and enter your password.

2. Select the feature you would like to change Privacy Settings for.

3. Choose who you want to allow from the drop-down menu: Friends, Friends of Friends or No One and select [Confirm].
